HAIG is GOD

SELFPORTRAIT WITH C-CLAMP JOHN M. BENNETT

I stood in front the toilet saw the lumpy water brimming at the edge I thought of plunging in my head "There's someone here" I thought I went downstairs to forks crashing in the blender a pile of butts on top the TV burning dog flashing by the window I opened the door I saw a man with a giant c-clamp on his head he smiled and held some dogbrains in a shoe "You've got to move" he says
"I'm happy here" I whine he grints and flings the brains on the rug

That night I held my wife and thought about a padlock installation, remembered a box of broken hammers, snotrags, spaghetti spurting out of gloves I went to take a leak I heard a woman scream in me I saw in the mirror my clamp its meaty pressure speeding me and holding me still in the smoking glass think about mail art

" Però si deve ammettere che l'arte è viva nella misura che può sfuggire alle costrizioni politiche ed economiche per ridiventare un modo d'espressione libero degli individui e una forza critica. Ma quest'arte è evidentemente respinta nella marginalità. Certe attività , talvolta spontanee , talvolta informali , dimostrano la vitalità dell'arte e di questo rifiuto della società spettacolare. Una vera internazionale dell'arte marginale e parallela esiste fuori dai complotti politici economici ed estetici che si manifesta in ribellione contro l'ordine costituito. Utilizzando mezzi di fortuna per diffondersi questa interna = zionale prende forme diverse : dall'azione individuale fino all'utilizzazione di manifestazioni culturali finanziate dalla istituzione. La mail art costituisce un esempio di questa rete parallela. Operatori (scegliamo questo nome in mancanza di uno migliore) scambiano per posta attraverso il mondo intero documenti diversi (lettere, cartoline, nastri, opere ...). La mail art non è una forma specializzata sta al di là delle divisioni tradizionali della cultura (non è letteratura non è pittura ...) è un mezzo di comunicazione parallelo : lo scambio non è condizionato e rimane gratuito. Gli operatori non sono artisti nel senso tradizionale non producono per il mercato non producono merce (benchè negli ultimi tempi alcune gallerie tentano di sfruttare questo nuovo mercato) non hanno funzione economica o ideologica ; sono individui che tentano di esprimersi e di comunicare. Non c'è servitù estetica o commerciale non c'è critica istituzionalizzata, c'è solo riconoscimento tra pari che si incontrano sull'unico terreno del loro desiderio di comunicare e della loro creatività. E quindi un "samidzat" planetario che si costituisce una critica sotteranea che circola in questo modo....."
